

Langley Family Guide

Information & Resources for people with support needs and their families

Last updated: February 2022

ABOUT THIS GUIDE

Moving to a new province and a new city can be very emotional and overwhelming. This is especially true for people with support needs and their families as specialized programs, services and funding options vary greatly from province to province and even from city to city.

This guide has been developed by Inclusion Langley Society \(ILS\) to offer important information, tools, and resources on where to start and what to expect when your family settles in Langley.

Please note that even though every reasonable effort has been made to ensure the information presented in this guide is current and accurate, you must seek additional information from relevant BC government ministries & crown corporations and local community organizations when applying for support. This guide does not replace their advice and guidance.

For more information about this guide, please contact:

ABOUT INCLUSION LANGLEY SOCIETY (ILS)

In 1959, a group of dedicated parents founded what is now called Inclusion Langley Society (ILS). In 2017, ILS merged with the Langley Children's Society.

Today, as one of the largest non-profit community organizations in Langley, ILS provides services and supports that improve quality of life for children with developmental or support needs and adults with intellectual disabilities or autism spectrum disorder.

With a wide range of services and supports we offer, we are able to match each person with the service best suited to enhance their daily lives. Please visit our website at www.inclusionlangley.com to view the full range of services and supports available.

ABOUT SPECIALIZED SUPPORTS & SERVICES

When a person has support needs in BC, there are various specialized supports and services available to them and their families. They are funded by BC government ministries and crown corporations and offered by community organizations. Please note that, in most cases, a person must meet certain eligibility criteria in order to receive the support and each support has a different referral/application process and a wait time.

What is Eligibility?

Eligibility is specific criteria that people must meet to receive service.

To determine the eligibility, you will be asked to provide diagnostic assessment documentation from certified and licensed medical doctors, psychologists, or other health professionals who have specific training, expertise and experience.

What is Psycho-Educational Assessment?

Psycho-Educational Assessment is the most of common diagnostic assessment documentation. This assessment, completed by a qualified psychologist privately or through the Langley School District (SD 35), is a comprehensive evaluation that provides insight into the person's unique strengths & challenges.

Diagnostic and Statistical Manual (DSM) IV or V

This is the book used by the diagnostician as guidance for a formal diagnosis.

CYSN will accept/use the DSM IV or V criteria for eligibility confirmation. For CLBC, an assessor's checklist will be needed if Psycho-Educational Assessment references it.

APPLICATION PROCESS AT A GLANCE

The below is an overview of the process you would need to take to apply for support and service. Please note that this process is intended to be generic. Please seek additional information from relevant BC government ministries, crown corporations and community organizations when you apply.

01 STEP

Learn how to apply.

Determine the eligibility criteria, referral/application process & documentation requirements.

PLEASE NOTE:

- Assessments completed outside of BC must be confirmed by a qualified BC specialist before you can apply for support.

02 STEP

Complete the application process.

In some cases, a referral may be required or you may need to complete an application form.

PLEASE NOTE:

- A referral or application form may be completed online.
- You may need help from a specialist, like a doctor, to complete an application form.

03 STEP

Wait for a decision.

You will be notified with the decision after your application is reviewed.

PLEASE NOTE:

- Request the notice of determination letter and keep it safe & available for future reference.
- You can appeal if your application was denied.

04 STEP

Schedule an intake meeting.

During the intake meeting, your intake worker will let you know what services & support you are eligible for and other useful information. Additional meetings can be set up as needed.

PLEASE NOTE:

- It is common to be placed on a waitlist.

05 STEP

Access eligible support & service.

If eligible and available, you can access programs/services that meet your needs.

PLEASE NOTE:

- Consider developing a plan with your team and review/update the plan regularly to monitor the progress & success.

CHECKLIST FOR MOVING TO LANGLEY

The below is a checklist for people with support needs and their families when they are planning to move to Langley. Please use it as a guide for ideas to help you get started.

BEFORE THE MOVE

START

Research what supports & services are available in Langley and who can help.

Keep important personal & medical documentation* close & safe during the move.

Bring enough medications, supplies and well-fitted equipment to last for 3-6 months.

Get private health care insurance or arrange for coverage with your former medical plan during BC MSP wait period.

FIRST 3 MONTHS AFTER THE MOVE

Send in copies of supporting documents to CYSN or CLBC office to speed up the application process if applicable.

Register your child in the Langley School District if applicable.

Get your BC identification & proof of residence in Langley.

Change your address with CRA to avoid delays or interruptions in benefit payments.

Apply for BC Medical Services Plan \(MSP\) coverage immediately after arriving in BC.

Find a family doctor & ask for referrals to specialists.

If your child is 19 or older, apply for CLBC or CSIL program if eligible. Consider RA if appropriate.

If your child is 17.5 or older, apply for PWD if eligible. Open a bank account in your child's name for deposits.

Begin developing a network of friends & supports for your child & your family. Involve your child in community activities like camps, sports & social activities.

AFTER SETTLING IN LANGLEY

Consider joining or volunteering with the community organizations that support your child and your family.

If your child is 16 or older, start the process to confirm eligibility with CLBC.

When your child receives the BC MSP number, apply for MCFD/CYSN funded children's programs like At Home Program \(AHP\) & Autism Funding if eligible.

Research professionals & programs/services that will help your child's development and success.

Consider attending family support groups and workshops.

If eligible & available, access funding, specialized services and supports.

Continue to build social networks and community connections. Find meaningful opportunities for your child to participate and contribute in their community!

FINISH

* Examples are Birth Certificate, Proof of Status in Canada, Immunization Records, Psycho-Educational Assessment, IEP, Confirmation of ASD Diagnosis, Past Assessments & Reports and More.

 Assessments completed outside of BC must be confirmed by a qualified BC specialist (paediatrician, psychiatrist or registered psychologist) before you can apply for support.

CHECKLIST FOR CHILDREN BIRTH-6

- Birth Certificate: Obtain your child's birth certificate and keep it safe & available.
- Social Insurance Number (SIN): Apply for your child's SIN which may be needed to receive government benefits & services.
- The Canada Child Benefit (CCB): Apply for the Canada Child Benefit (CCB).
- Immunization/Vaccination Records: Keep current vaccination records for your child.
- Specialized Programs/Services: Complete the application process if needed.
 - Infant Development Program (IDP): IDP is a family-centred, home visiting program for children, birth to 3 years of age, experiencing or at risk for a developmental delay.
 - Supported Child Development Program (SCD): SCD works collaboratively with families, childcare providers & other community professionals to ensure that children (birth to 19 years of age) with support needs can be included fully in the childcare settings of their families' choice.
 - Aboriginal Infant Development Program (AIDP) & Aboriginal Supported Child Development Program (ASCD): AIDP & ASCD are family-centred, home and childcare based programs for Indigenous children (birth to 19 years of age) who have a diagnosis, developmental delay or who are at risk for delay. They provide culturally sensitive service through home visits, childcare consultation and family support.
- Early Years Family Navigators | Birth - 6 years of age: Connect with Langley Early Years Family Navigators for information and support.
- Child Care Resource & Referral (CCRR) Program: Contact the Langley CCRR office (604) 533-4425 for free consultation, support, help with affordable child care benefit applications & referrals.
- Social Groups/Playgroups: Involve your child in social activities. Participate in various social/play groups offered by ILS and other community organizations in Langley.
- Diagnosis: If your child demonstrates signs that they have developmental or support needs, ask your doctor for a referral for an assessment. An assessment will allow you to better understand your child's needs. It is common there is waitlist for the assessment.
- Things to do while waiting for a diagnosis:
 - Gather specific information about your child for the assessment.
 - Connect with local child development experts for support. If eligible, access Early Childhood Intervention Program.
- Things to do after the confirmed diagnosis:
 - Learn about funding eligibility, availability and options and apply.
 - Speak with your MCFD/CYSN social worker and apply for specialized programs/services if eligible.
 - Learn about your child's needs and how to support them to develop their capabilities and enjoy success.
 - Disability Tax Credit (DTC): Apply for DTC if eligible. Being eligible for the DTC can open the door to other programs such as RDSP & CDB. Please note:
 - Your child's DTC eligibility may expire and need to re-apply. CRA will send you notifications if you need to reapply.
 - When you are approved for your child's DTC & CDB, you will be able to claim the disability amount & receive CDB retroactively up to 10 years by making an adjustment request for your tax returns.
 - Registered Disability Savings Plan (RDSP): Open RDSP if eligible.
 - Registered Education Savings Plan (RESP): Open RESP if it is a good fit for your child.
 - Social Network: Begin developing a network of friends and supports for your family.
 - Self-Care for a Family: Don't forget to find ways to rest & renew from daily demand.
 - Financial Planning: Begin financial planning early to assist your child in the future.
 - ALL ABOUT ME Binder: Start a binder to gather and organize your child's documentation & information (assessments & medical reports, correspondences) in one place, making it readily available for meetings, appointments, filling out forms, etc. Please call ILS at 604-534-8611 to learn how to start your child's ALL ABOUT ME binder.
 - Preschool | around ages 3-4: If appropriate, research preschools and education options and enroll your child by the deadline.
 - Kindergarten: Research schools and register your child with the kindergarten. During the registration process, inform the school staff that your child has support needs.
 - Preparing for School: Plan a transition meeting with your school and invite your child's home based team to the meeting.
 - Familiarize yourself with IEP.
 - Review & update your child's ALL ABOUT ME binder with the latest reports & documentations.
 - Make a list of questions to ask.
 - Transition School Meeting:
 - Be prepared to ask/answer questions.
 - Consider inviting someone you trust to help take notes and give you support.
 - Get Involved: Consider participating in your school's PAC and/or attend family support groups & workshops in your community.

5 TIPS THAT MAY BE HELPFUL FOR YOUR FAMILY

Make self-care a family priority: Take a break from caregiving responsibilities when possible using DTC/CDB benefits and/or respite benefits (if available). The more rested and restored you are, the more patient and proactive you can be as a parent!

Create a vision for your child: Develop a vision & set realistic goals as early as possible based on your child's strengths, interests and preferences. As your child grows and changes, review & update the vision & goals as needed.

Build strong support networks: Develop, expand and nurture a network of friends & supports for your family. The value of networking and sharing stories and experiences can help everyone.

Get organized: Start ALL ABOUT ME binder & keep all of your child's reports & information in the binder for future reference. Always ask for written reports of important information about your child & update the binder as needed.

Get involved: Consider joining & volunteering at community organizations that are involved with your child. Attend workshops or family groups so that you are ready to advocate for the needs of your child and your family.

CHECKLIST FOR CHILDREN & YOUTH 7-18

AGES 7-12

- Vision for the Future: Begin asking your child what they want to be when they grow up & develop a vision for the future.

FIVE TIPS FOR TRANSITION PLANNING

Start Early & Be Flexible!

Develop Self-Advocacy Skills!

Expand Support Networks!

Seek, Secure & Keep Employment!

Practice Money Management Skills!

Begin the transition planning process early & be flexible to allow time to plan, revisit & revise the plan and access the supports & services needed in the future.

Prepare your youth to be flexible can lead to success as plans will change no matter how carefully they are developed.

Ensure your youth has ample opportunities to learn and practice Self-Advocacy & Self-Determination skills in different settings.

Transition is a great time to explore how they will talk about their support needs & ask for any support or accommodation they will need.

Support your youth to develop helpful social & community support networks through various social, recreational, work, or volunteer opportunities.

Social relationships & community connections can build a bridge to new friendships, and a wide range of natural community supports.

Encourage your youth to explore employment opportunities in their community.

They will more likely to find future paid employment if they demonstrates interests, abilities, initiative, and dedication to work through community & volunteer activities.

Support your youth to develop money management skills such as saving, spending, gift giving, and budgeting.

As your youth transition to independent living & adult responsibilities, their experience with spending & saving will allow them to participate more fully in their own quality-of-life decisions.
