

Estate Planning Workshop Invitation

Believe in yourself
as a parent!

No one knows your child better than you. There is no better advocate for their needs.

Join us for an Estate Planning Workshop with local Wills & Estates lawyer, Steve Burton.

In this workshop, you will learn how to become well-informed about Wills, Alternate Decision Making, Trusts and Estate Planning to secure financial future for your family member with support needs.

This IN-PERSON workshop is FREE but registration is required.

WORKSHOP DETAILS:

- When: Thursday, May 26th, 2022 6:30PM-8:00PM
Register by May 24th to secure your spot.
- Where: Douglas Recreation Centre
20550 Douglas Crescent, Langley
- Contact: To register or for more information, please contact Lydia Kang.
Phone: 604-862-6807
Email: familysupport@inclusionlangley.com

ABOUT THE SPEAKER:

Steve Burton graduated from UBC with a B.Sc. and LLB. He has practiced law in Langley for over 40 years. He is currently semi-retired but still assists clients with will and estate matters. He has given talks on estate planning on local TV, at Trinity University, at financial institutions, at strata meetings and for other community groups.

Steve has been involved in the following community organizations:

- Past Chair Langley School District
- Past Township of Langley Councillor
- Past member Langley Township Parks and Recreation Commission
- Founding member of Langley Boys and Girls Club
- Past Rotary member
- Past Director Langley Transition House
- Past Director Langley Home Support
- Currently coaches Special Olympics golf and basketball

Steve has a particular focus on families with a person with a disability and the planning challenges associated with those families. Come and ask questions!!

